Evening/Online Class Announcement Hebrews

The West Virginia School of Preaching will offer a pre-recorded online class in the book of Hebrews August 16 through October 18, 2021 (our first quarter).

This class will be unique—a test-run to see how our pre-recorded classes might work. The class lectures will be what was recorded as the class was taught in 2019 by Andy Robison. This will bring up these issues:

- 1) There will be questions addressed that came up on chat in 2019 that will be answered in class.
- 2) Students will not be able to chat in live for questions.
- 3) Assignment dates mentioned verbally in class will not apply. Students will need to check their printed 2021 syllabi for the correct dates.

To sign up, e-mail Andy Robison at wvschoolofpreaching@gmail.com.

You will be sent a syllabus with all of the relevant information. Then, each Monday of the class you will be sent a link to that week’s class. Classes can be watched at your convenience, as long as assignments are turned in on time.

Also, the syllabus will have information on the class textbooks. These will NOT be handled by the WVSOP office, but we will have information on how to obtain them.

There is no charge for this class. The West Virginia School of Preaching operates solely on donations from individuals and congregations of the church. Donations are welcome at any time.

A certificate of completion for the class will be issued upon completing the class with a satisfactory grade. As we build the evening/online program, a separate certificate will be provided for each class.

Should a student ever enter our full-time program, this class will serve as a full-credit, transferring to our Hebrews class in the regular curriculum (other classes serve as half-credits, but this one is full).

**Please also note that a total of 4 such credits may be transferred into the regular program.

Call or e-mail Andy Robison any time with questions. 304-845-8001.

News

Graduation exercises were held June 18, with Zachary Barnhart and Roderick Goddard receiving their certificates. We also honored Larry and Gerri Dalesio of the Seven Hills church of Christ in Cameron, WV for their years of service and support of the school.

We had a one-day version of Future Preacher Training Camp on June 26, 2021. Nine were signed up, but four had to back out at the last minute for various reasons. The five who came did an excellent job presenting a lesson! They received some coaching, then presented it again, and the improvements showed! We also had alumni and faculty panel discussions about the role of a preaching school in the life of a student. Students came from as far as eight hours away!

Next year, we hope to return to a format of more than one-day.
